

School of Economics, Development and Tourism invites you participate in a webinar on:

Russia-Ukraine war: The impact on South Africa's Economic Development

Since the 24th of February, Russia's invasion of Ukraine has been a topic of discussion from different spheres. Less discussed, however are the implications on economies on the polar end of the globe such as South Africa. The Webinar will tackle this discussion with a leading global economy and development scholar and practitioner; with respondent perspectives from Tourism and Development.
